Information Collection

When visiting websites certain information about you and your computer can sometimes be collected. This section explains what information The Wayz collects and how it is used.

We collect the following identifiable information about our visitors:

- Your IP addresses
- Name, email address and phone number when the contact page of our website or WiFi login page is completed

Our website generates server log files automatically. These log files are used to generate statistical information and error reports to ensure the website runs with minimum disruption. We also collect data using Google Analytics.

Your Data Protection Rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

- You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information
- You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You may also have the right to ask to complete information you think is incomplete
- You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances
- You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances
- You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances
- You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you in certain circumstances

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

If you have any concerns about our use of your personal information, you can make a complaint to us at our contact details above.
